

ADR HELLENIC CENTER

REVIEW AND APPLICATION POLICY

If you did not correctly answer 70% of the questions in the written exams, you have the right to resume written examinations within 15 days.

If you have not passed the oral exams successfully, you have the right to completely repeat the exam within 2 months. In case that you do not succeed, you have the right to return for one more time, paying the amount of 200 euros for a check. If you fail the second time, then you do not have the right to return. You are entitled, in accordance with Greek law, to re-enroll and re-attend the training from the beginning.

If you want to appeal the conclusion that you failed the oral assessment, you must, in writing, file an appeal to our Center within 30 days of the announcement of the results, stating in detail the reasons. An independent panel will re-examine the video of the examination-assessment and we will respond within 30 days of filing the appeal.